

Deshna:
"Did you get the email about Dan? He's missing!"

"Email saying that Dan is missing."

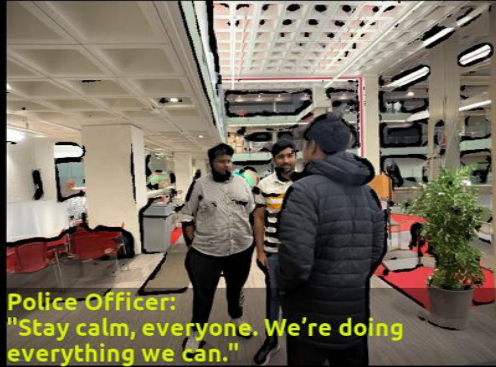

Yash:
"What do you mean missing? This can't be happening!"

Kaushik:
(pointing at the poster) "Look, they've already put up posters everywhere."

Kaushik:
(gathering with others) "Has anyone heard anything? This is so unsettling."

Police Officer:
"Stay calm, everyone. We're doing everything we can."

Yash:
"We need to stick together. Let's find out more."

Deshna:
(reading the newspaper)
"They've confirmed his death. This is just awful."

Kaushik:
(watching news) "They're saying it's suspicious. I can't handle this."

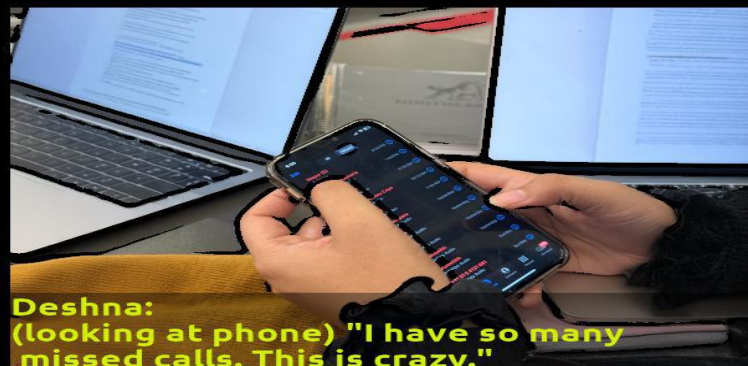

Yash:
"Let's have a group session. We all need to talk about this."

Harsh:
"We should listen to that podcast about unsolved cases. It might help us."

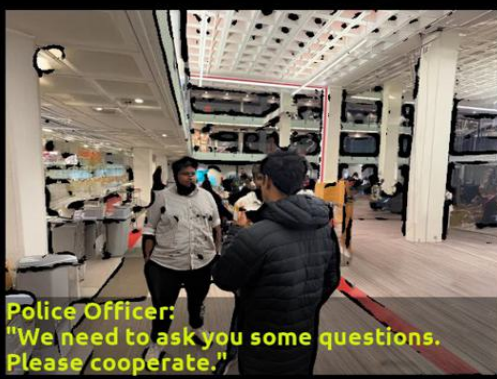

Deshna:
"Listening to podcast."

Deshna:
(looking at phone) "I have so many missed calls. This is crazy."

Yash:
"Look at all these condolences. It's overwhelming."

Police Officer:
"We need to ask you some questions.
Please cooperate."

Police Officer:
"We've got a lot of suspects to look into. We need your help."

"The Data Science laboratory with investigators collecting evidence"

Deshna:
"We need to figure out a timeline. It's crucial."

Deshna to Police Officer:
"I saw him arguing with someone. I didn't think much of it."

Yash:
"We have to check security footage. It might show us something."

Kaushik: (studying the map) "These are the key locations. Let's focus on these."

Police Officer:
"This pile of personal belongings might help us understand him better."

Yash:
"Here's the police report.
Let's go through it together."

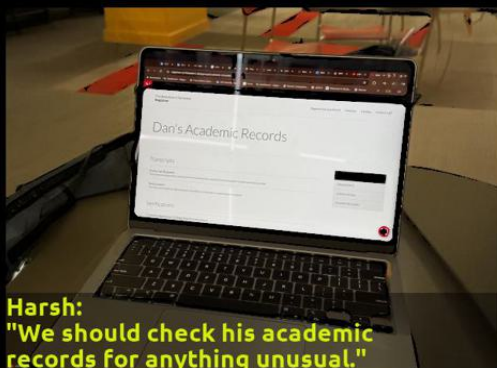

Deshna:
(showing phone) "Look at this suspicious tex
It doesn't seem right."

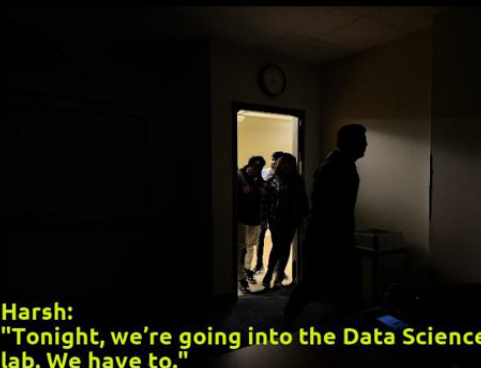

Harsh:
"Let's meet in our secret spot and share our theories."

Yash:
"I'll call my dad again.
Maybe he has more info."

Harsh:
"We should check his academic records for anything unusual."

Harsh:
"Tonight, we're going into the Data Science lab. We have to."

Everyone:
"Everyone grieving with the bad news."

Signed By Yash

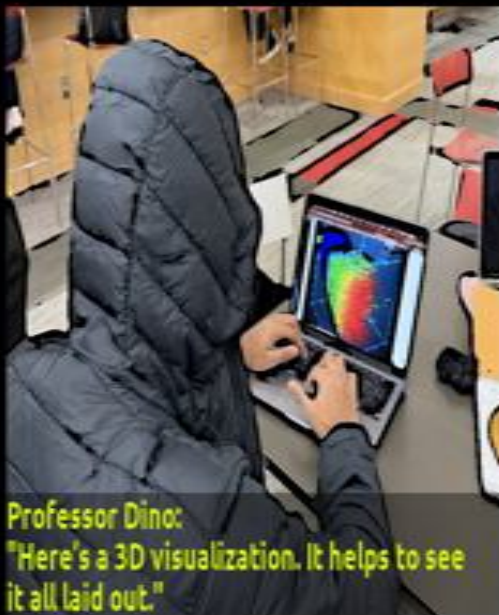

Professor Dino:
"Welcome! Today, we'll dive into how data can uncover patterns in behavior."

Professor Dino:
"This is how we predict probabilities using data analysis."

Kaushik:
(whispers) "These algorithms could lead us to the suspect."

Professor Dino:
"Here's a 3D visualization. It helps to see it all laid out."

Professor Dino: (locking up) "Don't forget to review everything we covered."

Harsh:
"Look at that graph! It points right to someone."

Kaushik:
(as they leave) "I can't wait to apply this to our case."

Harsh:
"I can't believe we overlooked this code. There are missing entries!"

Sam:
"Did you get the email about Dan? He's missing!"

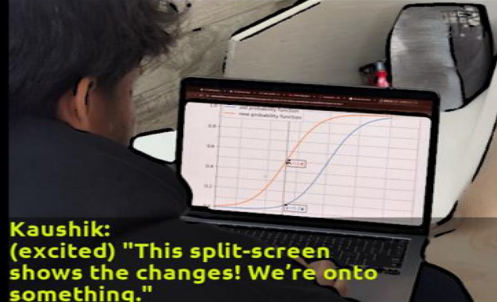

Yash:
(running in) "You guys! I just spoke with the police. They need our findings."

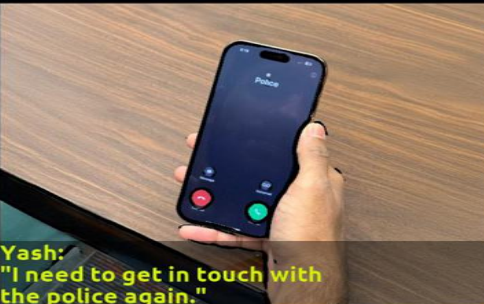

Deshna:
"Look at this Data Science book. It has Professor Dino's name in it!"

Harsh:
"Let's rework the model based on what we found."

Kaushik:
(excited) "This split-screen shows the changes! We're onto something."

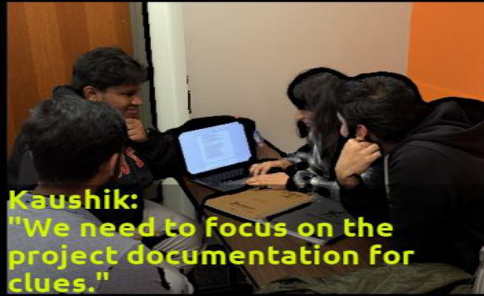

Yash:
"I need to get in touch with the police again."

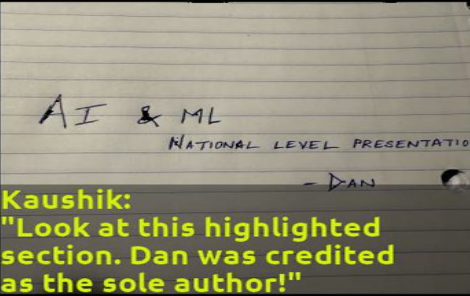

Alice:
"They're re-interviewing me? I hope I remember everything."

Deshna:
"This new probability for Professor Dino is shocking."

Kaushik:
"We need to focus on the project documentation for clues."

Kaushik:
"Look at this highlighted section. Dan was credited as the sole author!"

Police Officer:
"We're interviewing neighbors now. They might have seen something."

Deshna:
"Let's chart out the last few weeks leading up to Dan's death."

Yash:
(noticing Dino's face) "He's definitely feeling the pressure."

Deshna:
"We need to present these findings to the police."

Sam:
"Biting his nails filled with anxiety."

Harsh:
"We have to follow this lead. It could crack the case wide open."

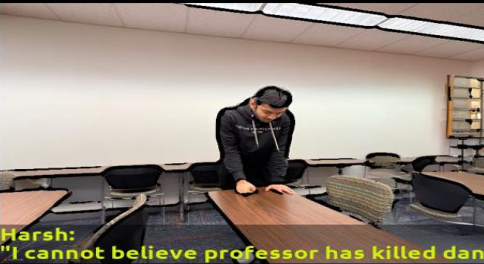

Deshna:
(taking a deep breath) "We're ready. We have to do this."

Police Officer:
"Professor Dino, we have some serious questions for you."

Yash:
"Clenched fists, showing his emotional investment in the case."

Harsh:
"I cannot believe professor has killed dan!"

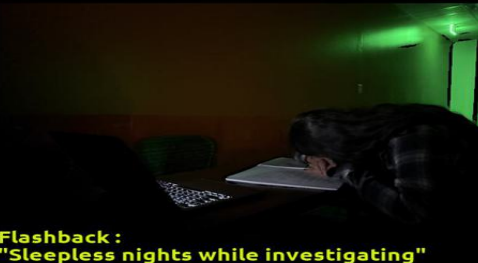

Deshna:
"How should I report this?"

Kaushik:
(whispering) "This is it. We're finally going to hear the truth."
